

Thomas Krolczyk

Tom is (60 years young) and was born in East Detroit as 1 of 5 children. His father (Clarence) worked for Chrysler for 32 years and his mother (Margaret) was a homemaker and worked part time for a local nursing home.

He started his career with the Village of Grosse Pointe Shores in 1999 in the Department of Public Works after a long tenure at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club of 17 years where he maintained the electrical, plumbing, mechanical, carpentry as well as the marina. In 2002 Tom went back to school and obtained his S-3 water distribution license and became Supervisor of the Water Department. In 2005 Tom left the DPW department to become the Building Department Administrator and Elections Official. From there he was also appointed as Harbormaster and the in-house IT technician running the city web site content and any technical issue that may arise. He also dabbles in photography and many of his photos can be found in the municipal calendar.

(Enough about work), Tom enjoys traveling with his wife Linda whom he has been happily married to for over 35 years and their 3 adult children. His other interests include hockey, which he has played for 30 years competitively. He also enjoys building and operating radio controlled anything including cars, trucks, planes, helicopters and drones. Tom enjoys building computers when time allows, and loves cars.

(Back to work), Tom was appointed by the Mayor and City Council as Interim City Manager In 2019 until a permanent solution could be found. In January of 2020 he became the first Assistant City Manager the city has ever appointed. "It's our family, team-like atmosphere and the great residents that makes working for Grosse Pointe Shores such a positive and fulfilling experience".
